APPENDIX 1 - GLOSSARY OF TERMS		1
APPENDIX 2 - PARENT OR GUARDIAN CONSENT		1

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Riot Games Inc. (“RGI”) owns the rights to distribute the game VALORANT worldwide and has created the VALORANT Ignition Series to serve as the official competition platform for VALORANT esports.

Cyber Games Arena (“CGA”) and Partner Teams are organizing and operating Logitech G VALORANT Pacific Open+ (“Pacific Open+”). CGA is the exclusive owner of worldwide exploitation rights with regards to audio-visual content as well as any sponsorship and merchandising rights of the Pacific Open+.

These VALORANT Pacific Open+ Tournament Rules (“Tournament Rules”) establish the general rules applicable to the play of VALORANT at all Pacific Open+ events. They include rules governing player eligibility, tournament structure, points structure, prize awards, and player conduct. These Tournament Rules include this the general terms set forth in Sections 1 – 12 below (“General Terms”), as well as the specific terms in the Appendices attached hereto. The Glossary in Appendix 1 has helpful definitions and explanations that are applicable to these General Terms and all other Appendices.

These Tournament Rules apply to the individual (natural person), entity and/or group (“Owners”) who registered a team (“Team”) to participate in the Pacific Open+ in accordance with the Esports Registration Procedures and Rules (“Registration Rules”) and to each Team’s players, managers, coaches, owners and other representatives. A Team’s players, managers, coaches, Owners and other representatives are referred to in in these Tournament Rules as the “Team Members”.

Teams will be selected to participate in the Pacific Open+ through various mechanisms. Most Teams will be selected to participate based on placement in the open online qualifiers described in these Tournament Rules. Teams may also be selected based on other criteria developed and administered by CGA from time to time.

These Tournament Rules apply to online regional Qualifier and Pacific Open+ (“Tournament”).

These Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules form a contract between a Team Member and CGA. Each Team Member is required to read, understand, and agree to these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules before participating in any Tournament.

BY PARTICIPATING IN ANY TOURNAMENT, YOU AGREE TO THESE TOURNAMENT RULES AND THE REGISTRATION RULES. IF YOU DO NOT ACCEPT THESE TOURNAMENT RULES AND THE REGISTRATION RULES, AND ABIDE BY THEM DURING YOUR PARTICIPATION IN THE TOURNAMENTS, YOU WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PACIFIC OPEN+.

GENERAL TERMS

1. Acceptance of Tournament Rules

1.1. Acceptance

- 1.1.1. Each Team Member must agree to these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules in order to participate in the Pacific Open+. A Team Member may accept these Tournament Rules by registering to participate in the Pacific Open+ in accordance with the Registration Rules or by participating in any Tournament.

1.2. Changes to Tournament Rules

The field of esports is changing rapidly as are the games that are played in esports, and these Tournament Rules will have to be updated or supplemented periodically to take account of developments in the industry, changes to the business model for esports and the updates to VALORANT. Accordingly, CGA may update, amend or supplement these Tournament Rules from time to time; and may interpret or apply these Tournament Rules by releasing online postings, instructional videos, emails or texts that provide instructions and guidance to Team Members. Any material changes to these Tournament Rules will be provided to the Team's Team Captain using the email address listed as part of the online registration process. Each Team Captain will be responsible for distributing updates and other communications relating to these Tournament Rules to other Team Members. Participation in the Pacific Open+ will constitute acceptance of the changed rules, instructions and guidance.

1.3. Enforcement of the Tournament Rules

CGA has retained a third-party tournament organizer ("Tournament Organizer") to operate certain Pacific Open+ Tournaments. The Tournament Organizer will be responsible for, among other things, providing officials, referees and administrators for each Tournament ("Pacific Open+ Officials") and for ensuring compliance with these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules.

2. Players

2.1. Eligibility

- 2.1.1. Player Age. In order to be eligible to participate in a Tournament as a player, an individual must older than 17 years of age before the start of the Tournament, 17 years of age defined as having lived 17 full years. If a player is under such age but older than 14 years of age (i.e. the player has lived for at least 14 calendar years) as of the Tournament start date, he or she may still enter the Tournament if he or she meets the other eligibility criteria in these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules and a parent or legal guardian accepts these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules on behalf of the player, and consents to the player's participation in the Tournament, using a parental consent form provided by the Tournament Organizer. Tournament Organizer will receive parental consent form after player advance to quarter final.
- 2.1.2. Regional Requirement. The top Teams from each Region will compete in the Pacific Open+ Finals. In order to maintain the regional identity of teams that compete in the Pacific Open+ and to encourage the type of regional identification that is important to fans and sponsors, each Team is required to maintain, at all times during the Pacific Open+, no fewer than four players that are Residents (as defined below) of the Team's home Region.

- (A) Team's Region. A Team's home Region is identified by the Team Captain at the time of registration and may not be changed at any time during the Pacific Open+ without the prior written approval of the Pacific Open+ Officials.
- (B) Resident Defined. A player is considered a "Resident" of a particular Region for the purposes of the Pacific Open+ if the player is either (i) a lawful resident of a jurisdiction in such Region for at least one year prior to the date that the player registers for the Pacific Open+, or (ii) a citizen or national of a country in such Region. All matters relating to the determination of a player's Region shall, for purposes of the Pacific Open+, be resolved by the Pacific Open+ Officials in their sole discretion.
- (C) Certification of Residency. All players shall certify their residency prior to participation in any live, in-person Tournament ("LAN Event") by providing proof of residency as defined below. Pacific Open+ Officials reserve the right to request legal proof to verify a player's age, residency or compliance with other eligibility requirements in these Tournament Rules or in the Registration Rules.
- (D) Proof of Residency. In order to be certified as a Resident by Pacific Open+ Officials, a player must prove lawful residency in the Region with a valid identification document (e.g. driver's license, passport, national identity card) issued by a governmental authority of a jurisdiction in the Region or have a valid residency visa (i.e., work visa, athlete visa, student visa).
- (E) Single Residency Status. A player may only be a Resident of a single Region at any point in time. A player who has lawful resident status in multiple Regions cannot be a Resident of two Regions simultaneously. Once a player declares residency in one Region in which he/she is eligible, the player may only switch Regions with advance approval by Pacific Open+ Officials. If a player becomes a lawful resident of a jurisdiction located in another Region during the course of the Pacific Open+ competitive season, the Pacific Open+ will only recognize the player as a Resident of such Region as of the date of the first Tournament Game in the Finals.
- (F) Residence Requirement Violations. Each Team is responsible for ensuring that its players meet the applicable residency requirements and that the Team has the required minimum number of players who are residents of its Region. It shall be a violation of these Tournament Rules, by both the Team and the player, if a player (or his or her parent or guardian) provides false, misleading or incomplete information resulting in the misclassification of such player's residency and Region. Such a violation will subject the Team and/or player to disciplinary measures as outlined in these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules.

1.2. No Riot Games Inc. ("RGI"), CyberGamesArena ("CGA") or Tournament Organizer Employees

Team Members may not be employees of Riot Games Inc. (“RGI”), CyberGamesArena (“CGA”) or Tournament Organizer or any of their respective affiliates at any point during the Pacific Open+ competitive season.

1.3. Player Names

Player Names will be selected at the time of registration and may not be changed at any time during the Pacific Open+ without the prior written approval of the Pacific Open+ Officials.

A Player Name may not include any word or phrase in any language that is offensive, toxic or hurtful. A Player Name may not include all or part of a corporate name or make use of the trademarks or other intellectual property of RGI, VALORANT or any third party without the prior written approval of the Tournament Organizer. In order to secure such approval, a player will be required to provide a license agreement, sponsorship agreement or other documentary evidence to the Tournament Organizer sufficient to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Tournament Organizer that the player is properly licensed to use such third party’s intellectual property. Notwithstanding any approval that may be provided by the Tournament Organizer, the entire risk and responsibility for obtaining the right to use a corporate name or the intellectual property of a third party in or as part of a player’s name or Player Name shall be with the player. Pacific Open+ Officials reserve the right to reject any Player Name selected by a player for any reason and to require the player to select an alternate Player Name that complies with these Tournament Rules.

1.4. Registration

All players must comply with the Registration Rules to be eligible to compete in any Tournament. All players must register (as a group with their teammates) for the Pacific Open+ through [logitechg-vpo-plus.cga.gg]. A player in the Pacific Open+ may not compete for more than one Team. Registration for the Pacific Open+ is open from [8 October to 12 November 2020].

1.5. Tournament-Related Events

The Tournament Organizer and RGI shall have the right to require players to cooperate in carrying out various media interviews, press briefings, streaming sessions, sponsor events, photo or video shoots, charitable events, webcasts, podcasts, chats and other media events that are organized by RGI or the Tournament Organizer in connection with the marketing and promotion of the Pacific Open+ and/or VALORANT (“Media Events”), provided that these Media Events do not unduly interfere with a player’s game preparation or participation. The reasonable and pre-approved expenses incurred by a player in travel to and from a Media Event will be borne by the Tournament Organizer or RGI. The Tournament Organizer shall have the right to sanction or disqualify any player or Team that fails to attend and participate fully in any scheduled Media Event.

2. Teams and Owners

2.1. Roster Requirements

2.1.1. Starters and Substitutes. Each Team is required to maintain, at all times during the Pacific Open+, five players in the Team’s starting lineup (“Starters”). A Team has the option of adding two additional player who shall act as a substitute (“Substitute”). Pacific Open+ Officials shall have the right to disqualify any Team with an incomplete roster. Teams are strongly encouraged to register seven players, which is the maximum number of players allowed.

- 2.1.2. Minimum Roster Requirement. All Starters, and any Substitute who replaces a Starter, must be eligible to participate in all Tournaments. Teams must at all times comply with the minimum roster requirement during the Pacific Open+. All matches have to be played with five players per team (5vs5), other constellations are not allowed. If a team fails to show up with enough players, the match will count as no-show.
- 2.1.3. Team Captain. Each Team must designate one player as its captain when completing the online registration process (“Team Captain”). The Team Captain will be responsible for all Team communications with Pacific Open+ Officials. The Pacific Open+ Officials may rely upon any communications from the Team Captain as being made by all players on the Team. The Team Captain must at all times be a player on the Team’s roster. For the avoidance of doubt, the Team Manager (as defined below) or any Owner is eligible to serve as the Team Captain, provided that he or she is also a player on the Team’s roster. A Team may not change its Team Captain during a Tournament without the prior written approval of the by Pacific Open+ Officials.

2.2. Submission of the Roster and Team Registration

Before the start of the Pacific Open+, each Team must register its roster (including all Starters and any Substitute) using the online tools provided by RGI. No changes to a Team’s roster will be permitted after a Team’s registration has been processed without the prior approval of the Pacific Open+ Officials (including for changes due to sickness, visa issues, etc.).

2.3. Team Names and Logos

Teams may have up to two total brand names in their team name. City/Region names are considered brands. For example, an allowable team name would be Logitech HongKong Lions, where “Logitech” and “HongKong” are the two brands. Conversely, a team name with more than two brands like Logitech-Mastercard HongKong Lions would be prohibited

The Team’s name will be selected at the time of registration and may not be changed at any time during the Pacific Open+ without the prior written approval of the Pacific Open+ Officials. All Team names must be different and unique. Neither a Team’s name nor its logo may include any word or phrase in any language that is offensive, toxic or hurtful. A Team name or logo may not include all or part of a corporate name or make use of the trademarks or other intellectual property of RGI, VALORANT or any third party without the prior written approval of the Tournament Organizer. In order to secure such approval, a Team will be required to provide a license agreement, sponsorship agreement or other documentary evidence to the Tournament Organizer sufficient to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Tournament Organizer that the Team is properly licensed to use such third party’s intellectual property. Notwithstanding any approval that may be provided by the Tournament Organizer, the entire risk and responsibility for obtaining the right to use a corporate name or the intellectual property of a third party in or as part of a Team name shall be with the Team. Pacific Open+ Officials have the right to reject any Team name or logo for any reason and to require the Team to select an alternate name or logo that complies with these Tournament Rules.

2.4. Concurrent Ownership

- 2.4.1. Rules on Concurrent Ownership. To preserve the competitive integrity of the Pacific Open+, the following rules apply:

- (A) No individual or entity may have an ownership interest, operational control or voting control, directly or indirectly, of more than one Team per Region, with a maximum of two Teams total across all Regions.
- (B) No individual or entity may (i) lend money to, (ii) guarantee the debts or obligations of, or (iii) participate in the financing of more than one Team per Region, with a maximum of two Teams total across all Regions.
- (C) No two Teams may operate under the same Team name. All Team names must be different and unique. Teams using similar logos must make them clearly distinct.

2.4.2. Exceptions to the Rules on Concurrent Ownership. Any exceptions to the foregoing rules shall require the prior written approval of RGI.

2.5. Sponsorships

Participants are prohibited from being sponsored in a VALORANT event by any brand whose business falls within the Globally Prohibited Sponsorship Categories (Appendix 2)

4.11. Stoppage of Play or Remake the game

4.11.1. Remake

- If one of the teams will not pick all the agents in the character selection screen and the game goes back to the lobby, the game has to be remake.
- In the case that the game started before writing ready from both sides, the team which did not write ready has the right to call a remake before round 1 of the game starts. (before the countdown in the game of round 1 reaches 0).
- If any of the players are not connected to the game before the counter reaches 0, the team can call a remake and the game has to be remake.
- If the game started on the wrong map, the game has to be remake.
- In order to do the remake, all the players have to leave the match. Start the next game as soon as possible. Both team captains will have to write ready again. If the team is not ready by 5 minutes after the remake, the team which is not ready will be disqualified. Game can be remake only once, the game has to be played in the way it started after the remake, even if the issues will occur. The situation can still be reported in VS Platform.

- If the team which is hosting the game does not remake. The Opposing team can report the situation to the Admins on the CGA VS Platform. The case will be reviewed and can result in disqualification of the team which did not do a remake.

4.11.2. Pauses

If a player disconnects during the game, the game has to continue and will not be paused or remade. (If the game has the GLL observer and cheats are enabled, the game can be paused during the game, but a team has to write before the countdown of the round reaches 0).

4.12. Live Streaming

In order to ensure fair play and the integrity of VALORANT Pacific Open+, all players are not allow to open live streaming during the competing time.

5. Post-Game Process

5.1. Results

Once the match finishes, both team captains have to take a screenshot of the results and post it in the CGA VS Platform after each game.

On the game result screenshot, results above the scoreboard, all the players and information of the match on the right of the results have to be visible.

5.2. Tech Notes

Following each Tournament Game, Players will identify any technical issues with Pacific Open+ Officials.

5.3. Break Time

In cases where breaks between Tournament Games are necessary or deemed to be desirable by the Tournament Organizer, Pacific Open+ Officials will inform Team Captains of such break time and the next Tournament Game will start promptly at the conclusion of such break time.

6. Substitutions and other Roster Changes

A Substitute may replace a Starter only between games during Tournament play. During Online Events, players may be substituted at any time between games. The Pacific Open+ Officials reserve the right to approve or deny any request to add or remove a player from a Team's roster based upon the eligibility of the player(s) involved and such request's compliance with these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules. The Pacific Open+ Officials also reserve the right to notify the participants in any upcoming Tournament of the details of any roster change request that has been submitted by a Team to Pacific Open+ Officials if such roster change has not been publicly announced.

7. Prizes

Prizes may be awarded to successful Teams and individual players at or following a Tournament. In general, the prizes earned by a Team or player will be delivered directly to the Owners of the Team, and the Owners shall be responsible for dividing the prize and paying it to players and others who contributed to the victory. Each Team or player that has been declared the winner of a prize in the Tournament will not be an official winner unless (i) the Team or player is eligible to receive the prize under applicable law; (ii) the winning player executes (or has a parent or legal guardian execute) an affidavit of eligibility, liability release and/or any other documentation required by RGI; and (iii) the Owners of the winning Team execute an affidavit of eligibility, liability release, and/or any other documentation required by RGI. Failure to sign and return all prize documentation to the Tournament Organizer or Pacific Open+ Officials may result in forfeiture and loss of the prize. The failure to take delivery of any prize within a reasonable time after the close of the Tournament may result in forfeiture and loss of the prize.

All prize money should ideally be paid out 45 days after the Pacific Open+ in question has been completed, but it may take as long as 90 days for the payment to be completed. If a team does not request the prize money payment within the presented deadline, their payment will be delayed.

8. Code of Conduct

8.1. Conduct Generally

8.1.1. High Standards for Professionals. All Teams and Team Members must at all times observe the highest standards of personal integrity and good sportsmanship. Team Members are required to behave in a professional and sportsmanlike manner in their interactions with other competitors, Pacific Open+ Officials, the Tournament Organizer, the media, sponsors and fans.

8.1.2. Competitive Integrity. All Teams and Team Members are expected to compete to the best of their skill and ability at all times in any Tournament Game.

8.1.3. Sanctions. A violation of these Tournament Rules will result in sanctions at the discretion of the Tournament Organizer, as discussed in greater detail below. All decisions made by the Tournament Organizer and Pacific Open+ Officials in regard to violations of these Tournament Rules are final and binding.

8.2. Prohibited Conduct

Set forth below is a non-exclusive list of examples of prohibited conduct.

8.2.1. Collusion/Match Fixing. A player may not collude. Collusion is defined as any agreement among two (2) or more players, and/or confederates to disadvantage opposing players. Collusion includes, but is not limited to, acts such as:

- (A) Soft play, which is defined as any agreement among two (2) or more players to not damage, impede or otherwise play to a reasonable standard of competition in a game.
- (B) Sending or receiving signals, electronic or otherwise, from a confederate to/from a player.
- (C) Pre-arranging to split prize money and/or any other form of compensation.

(D) Deliberately losing a game for compensation, or for any other reason, or attempting to induce another player to do so.

8.2.2. Cheating. Cheating is prohibited. Any modification of the VALORANT game client by any player, Team or other Team Member is prohibited.

8.2.3. Hacking. A player may not hack during tournament games. Hacking is defined as any modification of the VALORANT game client by any player, or person acting on behalf of a player.

8.2.4. Exploiting. A player may not utilize any exploits during tournament games. Exploiting is defined as intentionally using any in-game bug (determined as part of a published bug list) to seek an advantage. Exploiting includes, but is not limited to, acts such as: glitches in buying items, glitches in Agent ability performance, or any other game function that, in the sole determination of Riot officials, is not functioning as intended.

8.2.5. Ringing. A player may not act as a ringer during a tournament game. Ringing is defined as playing under another player's account or soliciting, inducing, encouraging or directing someone else to play under another player's account.

8.2.6. Vulgar or Hateful Speech. A Team Member may not, during a LAN Event, Online Event, media interview or in any communication relating to the Pacific Open+ or VALORANT, use any language that is offensive, insulting, libelous, slanderous, defamatory, obscene, discriminatory, threatening, foul or vulgar. A Team Member may not post, transmit, disseminate any such prohibited communications. A Team Member may not use this type of language on social media or during any public facing events or in any streaming of VALORANT. This rule applies to speech in English and all other languages. In addition, Team Members may not encourage members of the public to engage in any activities that are prohibited by this rule.

8.2.7. Violence. Team Members are expected to settle their differences in a respectful manner and without resort to violence, threats, or intimidation (physical or non-physical). Violence is never permitted at LAN Event or against any competitor, fan or Pacific Open+ Official.

8.2.8. Drugs and Alcohol. The use, possession, distribution or sale of controlled substances, such as drugs or alcohol, or being under the influence of such controlled substances, is strictly prohibited while a Team Member is engaged in any Tournament or other event or on premises that are owned by or leased to the Tournament Organizer. The unauthorized use or possession of prescription drugs by a Team Member is prohibited. Prescription drugs may be used only by the person to whom they are prescribed and in the manner, combination and quantity as prescribed. Prescription drugs may only be used to treat the condition for which they are prescribed and may not be used to enhance performance in a Tournament Game. Each Team Member is required to report any violation of this rule to the Tournament Organizer.

8.2.9. Gambling. Gambling on the outcome of Tournament Games (including any plays or components of a Tournament Game) can pose a serious threat to the integrity of, and public confidence in, the Pacific Open+. Team Members are not allowed to (i) place, or attempt to place, bets on any Tournament Games (or any plays or components thereof), or (ii) associate with high volume gamblers, or deliver information to others that might influence their bets.

8.2.10. Studio Interference. At LAN Events, no Team Member may interfere with lights, cameras or other studio equipment.

8.2.11. Unauthorized Communications. At LAN Events, all communication devices must be removed from the play area before any Tournament Game begins. Players may not text/email or use social media while in the match area. During the match, communication by a player shall be limited to the other players on the Team.

8.2.12. Identity. At all public-facing Tournaments, a player may not cover his or her face. Hats and dark glasses are not allowed during LAN Event play.

8.3. Apparel

8.3.1. Players may wear apparel with multiple logos, patches or promotional language. Riot and the Tournament Organizers reserve the right at all times to impose a ban on objectionable or offensive apparel:

- (A) Containing any false, unsubstantiated, or unwarranted claims for any product or service, or testimonials, that Riot, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers unethical.
- (B) Advertises any brand whose business falls within the Globally Prohibited Sponsorship Categories.
- (C) Containing any material constituting or relating to any activities which are illegal in any Riot region, including but not limited to, a lottery or an enterprise, service or product that abets, assists or promotes gambling.
- (D) Containing any material that is defamatory, obscene, profane, vulgar, repulsive or offensive, or that describes or depicts any internal bodily functions or symptomatic results of internal conditions, or refers to matters which are not considered socially acceptable topics.
- (E) Containing any trademark, copyrighted material or other element of intellectual property that is used without the owner's consent or that may give rise to, or subject Riot or its affiliates to, any claim of infringement, misappropriation, or other form of unfair competition.
- (F) Disparaging or libeling any opposing player or any other person, entity or product.
- (G) Riot reserves the right to refuse entry or continued participation in the match to any player who does not comply with the aforementioned apparel rules.

8.4. Riot Discretion

Any other further act, failure to act, or behavior which, in the judgment of Riot or Competition officials, violates this Ruleset and/or the standards of integrity established by the Riot and Competition Officials for competitive game play, is prohibited.

8.5. Unprofessional Behavior

Set forth below is a non-exclusive list of examples of unprofessional behavior, all of which are prohibited.

8.5.1. Harassment. Harassment is prohibited. Harassment is defined as systematic, hostile and repeated acts taking place over a period of time, or a singular egregious instance, which is/are intended to isolate or ostracize a person and/or diminish the dignity of the person.

8.5.2. Sexual Harassment. Sexual harassment is prohibited. Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances. The assessment is based on whether the person being harassed would regard the conduct as undesirable or offensive. There is zero tolerance for any sexual threats/coercion or the promise of advantages in exchange for sexual favors.

8.5.3. Discrimination and Denigration. Team Members may not offend the dignity or integrity of a country, private person or group of people through contemptuous, discriminatory or denigrating words or actions on account of race, skin color, ethnic, national or social origin, gender, language, religion, political opinion or any other opinion, financial status, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason.

8.5.4. Negative Statements. Team Members may not make, issue, authorize or publish any statement that is prejudicial or detrimental to the best interests of the Pacific Open+, Tournament Organizer, RGI or its affiliates, sponsors, or VALORANT.

8.5.5. Confidentiality. Without consent of the Tournament Organizer, a Team Member may not disclose any confidential or proprietary information provided or made available by RGI or the Tournament Organizer to the Team Member in relation to the Pacific Open+. Team Members shall be obligated to keep confidential the confidential or proprietary information provided by the Tournament Organizer. The "confidential or proprietary information" of RGI and the Tournament Organizer includes all information and materials disclosed (whether in oral, written, or other tangible or intangible form) or otherwise made available by RGI or the Tournament Organizer to a Team Member concerning or related to VALORANT, the Pacific Open+ or any Tournament which the Team Member knows or should know, given the facts and circumstances surrounding the disclosure of the information, is confidential information of RGI or the Tournament Organizer. Confidential information includes, without limitation, development plans and release dates for updates to VALORANT, the configuration of the stage used at LAN Events and other similar information that is withheld from fans in order to preserve the "reveal" at an Online Event or a LAN Event.

- 8.5.6. Illegal Activity. Team Members are required to comply with all applicable laws at all times. A Team Member may not engage in any activity which is in violation with laws, regulations or public security administration rules.
- 8.5.7. Immoral Activity. A Team Member may not engage in any activity which, in the sole determination of the Tournament Organizer, is unethical, immoral or disgraceful.
- 8.5.8. Bribery. No Team Member may offer any gift or cash or other reward to a player, coach, manager, other Team Member, Pacific Open+ Official, the Tournament Organizer or any other person connected with or employed by another Team in order to influence the outcome of a Tournament Game.
- 8.5.9. Gifts. No Team Member may accept any gift, reward or compensation from another Team or player (or anyone acting on behalf of another team or player) in connection with any Tournament.
- 8.5.10. Non-Compliance. No Team Member may refuse to comply with the instructions or decisions of the Tournament Organizer or the Pacific Open+ Officials.
- 8.5.11. Match-Fixing. No Team Member may offer, agree, or conspire to fix a match or take any other action to intentionally and unfairly alter, or attempt to alter, the results of any Tournament Game (or any play or component thereof). Match-fixing will be subject to maximum penalty in each instance. If a Team Member is asked to “fix” the outcome of a Tournament Game or to otherwise take part in any actions prohibited by these Tournament Rules, that Team Member must immediately report this request to the Tournament Organizer.
- 8.5.12. Document Submission. Tax forms, registration forms, parental consents and other documentation may be required at various times by the Tournament Organizer. If the documentation is not completed to the standards set by the Tournament Organizer then a Team may be subject to sanctions.
- 8.5.13. Term of Use. Any conduct that (i) violates the Terms of Use for VALORANT; (ii) violates any guidelines, or any policy posted on the official websites or social media accounts for VALORANT; or (iii) interferes with use of VALORANT by others is prohibited and a violation of these Tournament Rules.
- 8.5.14. Drop Outs and Refusals to Participate. If a Team Member or Team registers for, or agrees to participate in, the Pacific Open+, he, she, or it may not, without the prior written consent of the Tournament Organizer, drop out or refuse to participate in any Tournament Game or other event that is held during the applicable Pacific Open+ Split or season. An unexcused absence from a Tournament Game after the registration process is complete may result in sanctions, as provided in Section 6.4 below.
- 8.6. General Subjection to Penalty
- 8.6.1. Investigations by the Tournament Organizer. The Tournament Organizer will have the right to monitor compliance with these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules and investigate possible breaches. By agreeing to these Tournament Rules, each Team Member agrees to cooperate with the Tournament Organizer in any internal or external investigation that the Tournament Organizer conducts relating to a suspected violation of these Tournament Rules, the Registration Rules or applicable law. Team Members have a duty to tell the truth in connection with any investigation conducted by or for the Tournament Organizer and have a further duty not to obstruct any such investigation, mislead investigators or withhold evidence.

8.6.2. General Approach to Penalties. Any person found to have engaged in or attempted to engage in any act that Riot believes, in its sole and absolute discretion, constitutes unfair play, will be subject to penalty. The nature and extent of the penalties imposed due to such acts shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of Riot.

- a. Upon discovery of any Player committing any violations of the rules listed above, Competition officials may issue the following penalties as related to their competition:
 - i. Verbal Warning(s)
 - ii. Fine(s) and/or Prize Forfeiture(s)
 - iii. Game Forfeiture(s)
 - iv. Match Forfeiture(s)
 - v. Suspension(s)
 - vi. Disqualification(s)
 - vii. Any combination of the above
- b. In addition to any penalties instituted by Competition officials, Riot may apply additional penalties at its sole and absolute discretion.
- c. For the full Global Penalty Schedule, See Appendix 3

8.6.3. Repeated Infractions. Repeated infractions are subject to escalating penalties, up to, and including, disqualification from participation in the Pacific Open+.

8.6.4. Right to Publish. Riot and Tournament Organizers have the right to publish a declaration stating that a player has been penalized. Any player referenced in such declaration hereby waives any right of legal action stemming from the declaration against the Competition organizer or Riot Games, Inc., and/or any of their parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, agents, or contractors.

8.6.5. Spirit of the Rules.

- (A) Finality of Decisions
 - a) All decisions regarding the interpretation of these rules, player eligibility, and penalties for misconduct, lie solely with Riot, the decisions of which are final. Riot decisions with respect to this Ruleset cannot be appealed and shall not give rise to any claim for monetary damages or any other legal or equitable remedy.
- (B) Rule Changes

- a) These rules may be amended, modified or supplemented by Riot, from time to time, in order to ensure fair play and the integrity of VALORANT Pacific Open+.

(C) Best Interests of Riot Games

- a) Riot officials at all times may act with the necessary authority to preserve the best interests of the Riot Games. This power is not constrained by the lack of any specific language in this document. Riot officials may use any form of punitive actions at their disposal against any entity whose conduct is not within the confines of the best interests of Riot Games.

9. Use of Names and Likenesses

9.1. Grant of Rights by Team Members

Each Team Member hereby grants RGI, the Tournament Organizer and their respective affiliates permission to live-stream, broadcast or record his or her play of VALORANT at any Tournament or part thereof. Each Team Member hereby further grants to RGI and the Tournament Organizer a royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide right and license (with the right to grant sublicenses) to copy, display, distribute, edit, host, store and otherwise use and display his or her full name, Gamer Tag, photograph, likeness, image, avatar, voice, video, in-game persona, game play statistics, and biographical information, and create derivative works of the foregoing items, in any and all present and future media, on or in connection with (i) the broadcast or streaming of any coverage of all or any part of a Tournament; (ii) the marketing and promotion of the Pacific Open+ or any Tournament or part thereof; and (iii) the marketing and promotion of VALORANT.

9.2. Ownership of VALORANT Streams and Broadcasts

Each Team Member irrevocably acknowledges and agrees that all streams and audiovisual recordings of any all or any part of a Tournament are owned by RGI or its licensors. Appearing in a stream, broadcast or audiovisual recording of any Tournament does not give a Team Member any ownership interest in such stream, broadcast or audiovisual recording.

9.3. Feedback

A Team Member may from time to time provide suggestions, comments or other feedback (“Feedback”) to RGI or the Tournament Organizer with respect to the operation of, or improvements for, the Pacific Open+, a Tournament or VALORANT. Each Team Member agrees that all Feedback, even if designated as confidential by the person offering the Feedback, shall not, absent a separate written agreement, create any confidentiality obligation for RGI or the Tournament Organizer. Furthermore, except as otherwise provided in a separate subsequent written agreement signed by RGI, RGI shall be free to use, disclose, reproduce, edit, license, sublicense, or otherwise distribute, and exploit the Feedback as it sees fit, entirely without obligation or restriction of any kind on account of intellectual property rights or otherwise.

10. Limitations of Liability

10.1. No Punitive Damages

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, neither RGI, the Tournament Organizer nor any of their respective affiliates or licensors (collectively, the “RGI Parties”), shall be liable in any way for any loss of profits or any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, punitive, or exemplary damages, arising out of or in connection with these Tournament Rules, the Registration Rules, the Pacific Open+, any Tournament or VALORANT, or the delay or inability to use or lack of functionality of VALORANT, even if a RGI Party is at fault and even if a RGI Party has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

10.2. Cap on Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the aggregate liability of the RGI Parties arising out of or in connection with these Tournament Rules, the Registration Rules, the Pacific Open+, any Tournament and VALORANT will be limited to a Team Member’s direct damages in an amount not to exceed US$ 500. Multiple claims will not expand this limitation. These limitations and exclusions regarding damages apply even if any remedy fails to provide adequate compensation. RGI neither assumes, nor authorizes the Tournament Organizer or any other person or entity to assume on RGI’s behalf, any liabilities in addition to those liabilities expressly set forth in this Section 8.2.

11. Interpretation and Construction

11.1. Tournament Organizer’s Right of Interpretation

Any matters relating to the Pacific Open+ or VALORANT that are not covered by these Tournament Rules or the Registration Rules shall be subject to an interpretation made by the Tournament Organizer and provided to the Teams from time to time in the form of an update to, or interpretation of, these Tournament Rules or the Registration Rules.

11.2. Additional Terms

Players may be required to accept additional terms from the Tournament Organizer in order to participate in Tournaments. RGI will collect, store and use a player’s personal information in accordance with the Privacy Policy for VALORANT in effect for the player’s Region. Play of VALORANT is subject to compliance with the Terms of Use/ End User License Agreement in effect for the player’s Region. RGI reserves the right to change or update these Tournament Rules or the Registration Rules at any time, and to modify or cancel some or all of the Tournaments, in its sole discretion, at any time.

11.3. Business Judgment

Whenever these Tournament Rules or the Registration Rules grant, confer or reserve to RGI or the Tournament Organizer the right to take action, refrain from taking action, grant or withhold consent or grant or withhold approval or make any other determination, unless the provision specifically states otherwise, each of RGI and the Tournament Organizer will have the right to engage in such activity in its sole discretion based on its own business judgment, taking into consideration its assessment of the best interests of RGI and the Tournament Organizer and the short and long term interests of the Pacific Open+, VALORANT and the businesses and activities of the affiliates and group companies of RGI and the Tournament Organizer. Neither a Team nor a Team Member will have any claim or cause of action based on an assertion that RGI, the Tournament Organizer or any Pacific Open+ Official has unreasonably withheld or delayed any consent, approval, determination or other requested action under these Tournament Rules or the Registration Rules.

11.4. Language

These Tournament Rules have been written in the English language. In recognition of the fact that the Pacific Open+ is a global competition, RGI will endeavor to provide translations of these Tournament Rules into other languages in the Region. In the event of a conflict in interpretation between the English version and such translation, the English version shall control.

11.5. Conflicts

In the event of a conflict in interpretation between these Tournament Rules and the Registration Rules, these Tournament Rules shall control. In the event of a conflict in interpretation between the provisions of these General Terms and the provisions in any Appendix, the provisions that are most protective of RGI (as determined by RGI) shall control.

APPENDIX 2 - PARENT OR GUARDIAN CONSENTPARENT OR GUARDIAN CONSENT FORM

Background and Purpose: Welcome to our VALORANT Pacific Open+ event. We're happy you could join us. VALORANT Pacific Open+ events are intended for adult viewers and participants. A minor may attend a VALORANT Pacific Open+ event and participate in the fan experience if his or her parent or legal guardian has granted consent. In this form (the "Consent Form") the parent or legal guardian named below ("you" or "Guardian") agrees to the following legal terms and conditions relating to the attendance of the minor named below ("Minor") at the VALORANT Pacific Open+ event described below and at any related events, including meals, fan engagement events, media and sponsor events, etc. ("Pacific Open+").

Minor Information:
Minor Name:	Date of Birth:
Parent/ Guardian Name:	Parent/ Guardian Email:
Event Name:	Event Date:

You, the undersigned, certify that you are the parent or legal guardian of the Minor named above. You understand that your permission and authorization is required in order for the Minor to attend and participate in the Pacific Open+ Event. You also understand that the Minor will not be permitted to attend or participate in the Pacific Open+ Event unless you provide your permission by signing this Consent Form. Your signature on this Consent Form is evidence of your understanding and acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth below:

1. Consent to Participate. You hereby give permission for the Minor to attend and participate in the Pacific Open+ Event. You accept all responsibility for, and you assume all risk of loss and liability for, any damages and injuries that Minor may suffer or sustain as a result of his or her attendance or participation at the Pacific Open+ Event.

2. Release of Event Organizers. You hereby release [Riot Games Inc] ("RGI"), the organizer of the VALORANT Pacific Open+ ("Tournament Organizer"), [CyberGamesArena] ("CGA"), and their respective affiliates and subsidiary organizations, together with all of their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, independent contractors, investors, insurers, and agents (the "RGI Group"), from any and all claims, liability, or causes of action of any kind arising anywhere in the world, whether based on negligence, breach of contract or duty or otherwise, for property damage, personal injury, or death, arising from or related to the Minor's attendance and participation in the Pacific Open+ Event.

3. Acceptance of Other Legal Terms. You hereby accept, on behalf of the Minor, and agree to be bound by, any legal terms and conditions that relate to the Pacific Open+ Event and that are printed on tickets, presented during the ticket purchase process, displayed on signage at the venue where the Pacific

Open+ Event takes place or otherwise legally binding on people who attend the Pacific Open+ Event. You further agree that you shall be legally responsible for any violation of any such terms and conditions by the Minor.

4. Video of the Minor. On behalf of the Minor, you hereby grant the RGI Group, their sponsors and their respective affiliates, streaming partners, assigns and licensees an unrestricted right to video, photograph and record the Minor during the Pacific Open+ Event and to stream, broadcast, display and/or otherwise use the Minor's name, image, likeness, voice, audiovisual recording and biographical data throughout the world in perpetuity, in any form or media now known or hereafter devised, for advertising and publicity purposes, without compensation to you or the Minor. You acknowledge and agree, on behalf of the Minor, that all Pacific Open+ Event performances, streams, broadcasts, and recordings, and all data and statistics collected during the Pacific Open+ Event, are the sole property of the RGI Group, who may copy, edit, perform, broadcast, re-post and otherwise use them however they choose. You hereby irrevocably transfer and assign any rights that you or the Minor may have or acquire in these performances, streams, broadcasts, recordings, data and statistics to the RGI Group.

5. Indemnification. You hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the RGI Group from and against any claim, liability, or cause of action of any kind arising from or related to the Minor's attendance or participation at the Pacific Open+ Event. You accept full responsibility for all medical expenses and emergency treatment arising from or related to the Minor's attendance or participation at the Pacific Open+ Event.

6. Governing Law and Other Terms. This Consent Form (including any questions relating to its existence, validity or scope) shall be governed by the laws of [Indonesia], without regard to choice of law principles. This Consent Form shall be effective and binding upon the Minor's heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators, assigns and representatives. If any provision of this Consent Form is so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable. In entering into this Consent Form you are not relying on any oral or written statements or representations made by any person with respect to the Pacific Open+ Event. This Consent Form sets forth the entire agreement relating to its subject matter and may not be amended except by a written amendment signed by the organizer of the Pacific Open+ Event.
